

Application for 2026-2027 Student Advisory Committee

Mission Statement/Purpose: The President’s Student Advisory Committee (PSAC) seeks to empower the student voice at UNT through respectful dialogue with university administration and change-oriented language from student representatives within the UNT community. The PSAC cultivates new ideas and promotes civic engagement with university leadership through thoughtful conversation and collaborative advocacy from UNT students with varied and distinct perspectives.

Requirements:

- Successful candidates will be able to demonstrate an ability to engage in thoughtful dialogue, sharing ideas and constructive criticism in a respectful and professional way.
- Across the committee, we’re looking for diverse experiences, including but not limited to, grade point average, major, classification, involvement in organizations, utilization of university services, and perspectives.

The PSAC Application Does Not Require:

- A minimum GPA.
- Any specific major.
- Specific classification, but successful candidates will commit to a full academic year (fall-spring).

Application/Selection Process:

1. Complete and submit the PSAC application form to UNT.Events@unt.edu.
2. The President’s Office will remove identifying information and assign a code for grading.
3. The President’s Office will send the applicants’ names to current PSAC members, requesting disclosure of any conflicts of interest.
4. PSAC members will notify the President’s Office of any conflicts of interest.
5. The President’s Office will group current PSAC members to grade applications at a pre-determined application grading meeting.
6. The President’s Office will coordinate with additional UNT staff/professionals for further application grading, as needed.
 - a. Each application will be graded by 3 to 4 PSAC members and one UNT staff member.
 - b. All application reviewers will follow the same application rubric to encourage consistency.
7. The President’s Office will calculate the average scores for each application and set a minimum score for applicants.
8. Applicants with scores at or above the minimum score will be reviewed by the President; applicants with scores below the minimum score do not advance in the selection process.
9. The committee’s goal is to confirm 20-25 finalists.
